WASHINGTON BALTIMORE CENTER FOR PSYCHOANALYSIS, INC.

2120 L St. NW Suite 600-1
Washington, DC 20037

The Washington Baltimore Center For Psychoanalysis, Inc. was formed by the merger Baltimore Washington Center For Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis, Inc. and Washington Center for Psychoanalysis, July 1, 2017. These organizations had a shared beginning as a study group in 1927.

The Washington-Baltimore Psychoanalytic Society was organized in 1930, with the following charter members:

Dr. Ross McClure Chapman	Dr. Loren B.T. Johnson	Dr. Harry Stack Sullivan
Dr. Anna C. Dammermann Colomb	Dr. Nolan D.C. Lewis	Dr. G. Lane Taneyhill
Dr. Lucille Dooley	Dr. Adolf Meyer	Dr. Clara Thompson
Dr. Philip S. Graven	Dr. Edward Hima Reede	Dr. William A. White
Dr. Ernest E. Hadley	Dr. William V. Silverberg

It was accepted as a Constituent Society by the American Psychoanalytic Association when this Association became a Federation in 1932. In 1946 the Washington-Baltimore Psychoanalytic Society became two Societies, each located in its respective city. In March of 1969 the name of the Baltimore Psychoanalytic Society was changed to the Baltimore-District of Columbia Society for Psychoanalysis.

WILLIAM ALANSON WHITE PSYCHOANALYTIC SOCIETY

20 West 74th Street
New York, NY 10023

The William Alanson White Psychoanalytic Society was incorporated in 1952, incorporated by Founders and graduates of The William Alanson White Institute of Psychiatry (established in 1946 as an independent, free-standing institute, after initially providing training as the New York branch of the Washington School of Psychiatry, from 1943-1946). The Institute has evolved subsequently as The William Alanson White Institute of Psychiatry, Psychoanalysis and Psychology.

The William Alanson White Psychoanalytic Society was accepted as an Affiliate Society of the American Psychoanalytic Association in January 2015, and the William Alanson White Institute of Psychiatry, Psychoanalysis and Psychology was accepted as an approved institute of the American Psychoanalytic Association in January 2015.
