

ERNST AND GERTRUDE TICHO
MEMORIAL AWARD and LECTURE

112th Annual Meeting
Virtual
June 2023

Specific date will be announced when available

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS:
Friday, December 2, 2022

The Ernst and Gertrude Ticho Memorial Award and Lecture recognizes and encourages the work of a promising psychoanalyst who has made contributions to the field through teaching, writing, research, and applied and/or clinical work with anticipation that the Ticho Award will foster future contributions to psychoanalysis.

The Ticho Lecture was inaugurated in June 2006 with the generous support of the Ernst and Gertrude Ticho Charitable Foundation to further the Tichos' devotion to the development of analysts.

PRIZE

- Presentation of a 40 minute original paper on a topic of the award winners' choosing at APsaA's 112th Virtual Annual Meeting
- $3,000 honorarium

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The application process consists of a letter of nomination and a CV.
Applicants can self-nominate or be nominated.

- Letter of nomination
A letter of nomination is required for those self-nominating or being nominated by an APsaA member. Effective letters are detailed, specific, and generally no more than three pages in length. They will explain why the individual should be considered for the Ticho Award including accomplishments to date and future intentions regarding psychoanalytic practice, science, and scholarship.
- Curriculum Vitae
- Nominees must be a member of APsaA in good standing at the time of submission
- Nominees must be available to present their paper at the 112th Annual Virtual meeting. The specific date will be announced when available.

DEADLINE

- The due date for all materials to be received at APsaA is Friday, December 2, 2022. Late submissions will not be accepted.
- Please send your materials to Carolyn Gatto, Cgatto@apsa.org

The Ticho Committee looks forward to reading all submissions.

Julie Jaffee Nagel, Ph.D.
Chair, Ticho Committee

Stefan Pasternack, M.D.
Director, Ticho Foundation