This dine-around is hosted by APsA's Psychotherapy Department, and welcomes practicing psychoanalytic therapists, trainees, researchers, faculty and training directors. Please join us at TROPISUEÑO, a family-style Mexican restaurant to share experiences and ideas about current psychotherapy membership, practice and training.

Michael Burke is a psychoanalytic psychotherapist practicing in New York, New York. He serves on APsA's Psychotherapist Committee and the Psychotherapy Advisory Committee. Kathryn Fleming-Ives is a psychiatrist and psychoanalytic psychotherapist practicing in Providence, RI. She is the current co-chair of APsA's Psychotherapist Committee and with Michael serves on the Psychotherapy Advisory Committee.

Both Michael and Kathryn are strongly committed to supporting the practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy via education, training, outreach, and networking.

All Psychotherapists are welcome. Space is limited.

To RSVP please email Michael Burke: michaelburkelcsw@gmail.com
