

Fashion & the Psychoanalytic Frame

INSTRUCTOR:

BONNIE J. BUCHELE, PH.D., ABBP, DFAGPA

Saturday, September 20, 2025, 12 - 2 PM EDT

This seminar will focus on the relationship between fashion and the frame as it relates to the analysand, the analyst and the process.

Dr. Buchele will give a brief review of the literature and speak of her relationship with fashion as well as the role it has played in her work with patients. These remarks will be followed by a group discussion where participants can share thoughts and ideas about their relationships with fashion in the psychoanalytic world.

Registration Now Open:

Click here or Login to apsa.org & click on Register for Events in the Member Dashboard. The FREE Seminar Series events are an APSA member benefit for its In-Training Members.

Not yet a member? To learn more & join, visit apsa.org/in-training.

Registration is required and limited (there is a wait list). Sessions will not be recorded.

Bonnie J. Buchele, Ph.D., ABBP, DFAGPA, is President-Elect of the American Psychoanalytic Association. As a psychologist, she practices psychoanalysis, individual psychotherapy and group psychotherapy in Kansas City, Missouri, USA. She is a Past President and Distinguished Fellow of the American Group Psychotherapy Association, Past Director of the Greater Kansas City Psychoanalytic Institute and has served as President-Elect of the International Association for Group Psychotherapy and Group Processes. She held various positions at the Menninger Clinic during her tenure of over thirty years there and was a consultant to clinicians working with 9/11 survivors. In addition to publishing articles, chapters and books on subjects ranging from trauma to group psychotherapy to psychoanalysis, Dr. Buchele lectures, teaches and consults within the USA and internationally. Recently, her curiosity has extended to include exploring the relationship between psychoanalysis and fashion.